Great Village Holidays

Cambodia & Vietnam Made Easy Tour

Departs every week of the year. 20 days

Not fully escorted - really well looked after... Travel with your own chauffeur driven car and guide between destinations. Once there, explore with confidence.

You only visit the best of Cambodia and Vietnam, staying in carefully selected quality hotels approved and inspected by Great Village Holidays.

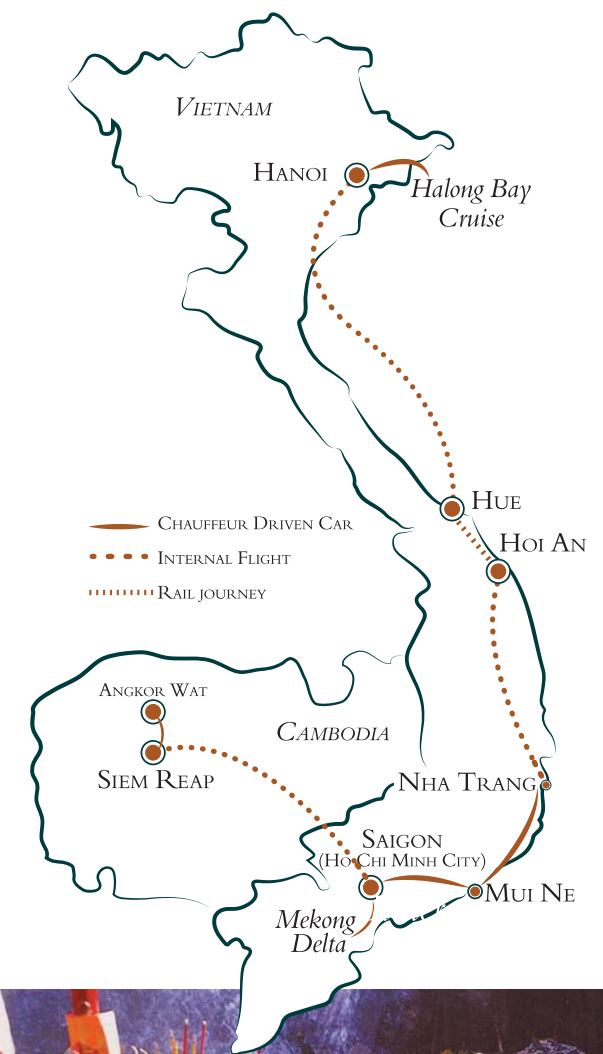

Our aim for independent travellers is to design a memorable holiday by day, whilst at night providing safe and secure lodgings in a unique setting.

While visiting Cambodia and Vietnam you will be looked after by Anh (pronounced Arn) and our team. Anh and our trusted English speaking staff, all of whom are trained guides, will ensure you have a relaxing, trouble free holiday whilst experiencing the very best these beautiful countries have to offer.

Independent departures are every week. Transportation is by air, boat, rail and air-conditioned private car. Accommodation is in 4 and 5 star hotels throughout, located in the most interesting areas usually in the Old Quarter and giving easy walking access to the best sights.

All rooms have their own private facilities. An ideal opportunity to travel on and experience more with an extended stay - talk to us about onward travel options.

Day 1. Cambodia – Siem Reap

Arrive into Siem Reap airport to be met and welcomed by your Great Village Holidays English-speaking guide and your driver, who will take you to your centrally located Resort Hotel. On arrival you may prefer to relax, or have your guide do a brief orientation tour of the area, the decision is yours.

Afternoon and evening at leisure.

Day 2. Siem Reap Angkor Temples

After a leisurely breakfast join your guide to experience today the world-famous temples of Angkor, a stupendous array of ancient religious monuments virtually unrivalled anywhere in Asia. The majestic temple of Angkor Wat, with its five iconic corncob towers rising high above the surrounding jungle, is the chief attraction, rivalled by the magical Bayon Temple, embellished with superhuman images of the half-smiling Avalokitesvara, and the jungle-smothered temple remains of Ta Prohm, with crumbling ruins squeezed between the roots of enormous trees and creepers. Later this afternoon drive to the Pre Rup Temple for a truly memorable sunset over the rice paddy.

Your evening at leisure to relax.

Day 3. Siem Reap Angkor Temples – the Roluos Group

After your leisurely breakfast join your guide to visit the Ancient capital of Angkor built in the ninth century. The monuments of Roluos, which served as the capital of Indravarman I (reigned from A.D 877-89), are among the earliest temples built by the Khmers and mark the beginning of Khmer Classical Arts.

This afternoon discover the fishing village of Kompong Phluk, the village on stilts. Canoe through the mangroves and listen to the calls of the Macaque monkey, viewing also the submerged forest lying beneath the Lake's waters.

Late afternoon and evening, yours to explore and relax.

Day 4. Saigon (Ho Chi Minh City)

Enjoy another wonderful breakfast at your hotel, before joining your chauffeur for the departure transfer to the airport and your flight to Ho Chi Min City or Saigon as the locals still call it. Be met by your guide and driver who will take you to your centrally located French Colonial hotel. Today has been left free to explore the delights of Saigon at your own pace.

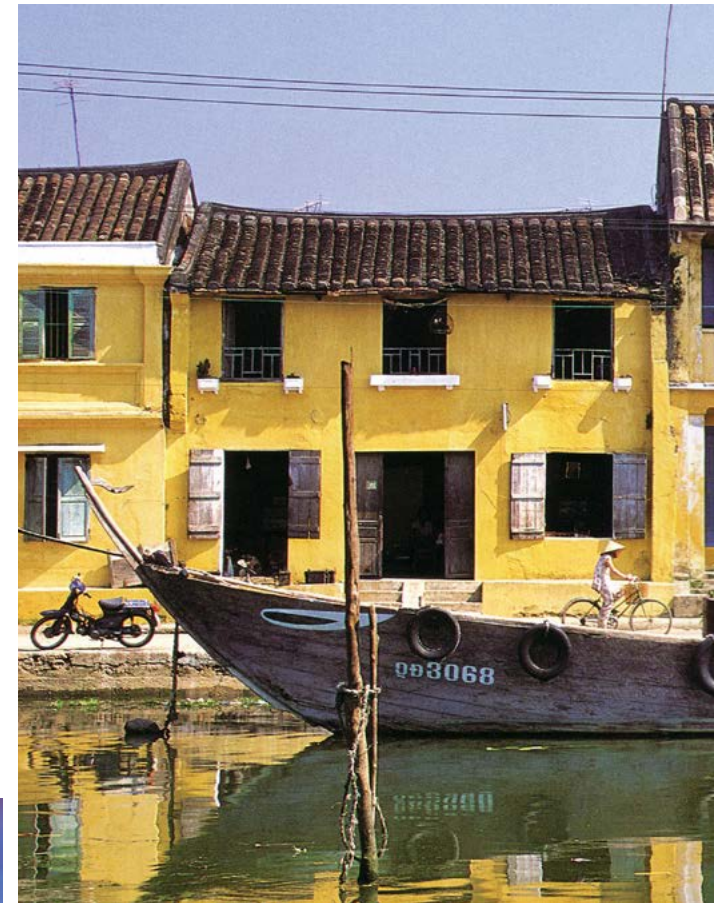

Although little evidence is left, the region has been marred by years of war and a visit to the War Remnants Museum is a poignant reminder to the American War (as it is called in Vietnam). The Museum is an easy walk from the hotel and last admission is at 4.30pm. Tonight we recommend a visit to Chinatown (Cholon District) or a dinner cruise on the Saigon River – Daily breakfast is included at your hotel.

Day 5. Mekong Delta

After breakfast depart at 8.00am with your English-speaking guide and travel by car to Cai Be where you start your three and a half hour cruise to experience the wonders of the Mekong Delta. An unforgettable travel day as you revel in the exotic atmosphere of floating markets, visit local villages, take an included lunch at an old garden house on an island, listen to traditional music and either cycle through the islands or use rowing boats to explore further on the water. You leave the cruise at Vinh Long Town and return with our guide to Saigon around 7.00pm. A long but memorable day.

Day 6. Saigon

At Leisure for you to wander and explore.

Day 7.

After breakfast you will be met by your English-speaking guide and driver who will accompany you for the extensive and interesting road journey to Mui Ne Beach (travel time is subject to traffic conditions). As you leave Saigon be amazed by the throng of this busy city for it seems all of its 3 million motorcycles are on the same street as you.

Travelling east the crowds clear and make way for rural countryside; enjoy the scenery, stop for the occasional photo. Our cars have refreshments on board to allow you to sit back and relax.

Day 8. Mui Ne Beach

Mui Ne is often described as the “Undiscovered Hawaii” of Vietnam. Where better to start your holiday than in the relaxing setting of a lovely resort hotel? - Your own tropical introduction to Vietnam. You can do very little each day or be out and about exploring the nearby sights. The local Phan Thiet markets, the famous white sand dunes, the fishing fleet returning each morning or simply take a complimentary bike from the hotel and see the sights at your own pace. A daily breakfast banquet is included for you at the resort. A range of delicious inexpensive food is available either at the hotel or in the many nearby local restaurants.

Your room is set amid a tropical garden with undulating lawns, lovely palm trees and a beautiful sandy beach that stretches for miles. The hotel has a large outdoor swimming pool, jacuzzi, spa, fitness centre and tennis court but, most importantly, it is the perfect environment to appreciate and learn about the many delights of Vietnam - the people, the tastes, the sights and the way of life on the coast.

Days 9 & 10.

At leisure on this beautiful coast.

Day 11. Mui Ne / Hoi An

Mid morning transfer by car to Nha Trang airport for your short flight to Da Nang City where you will be met by your English-speaking guide and transferred the 30kms along the new coastal road to picturesque Hoi An. Accommodation is at a 4 star hotel set on the banks of the Thu Bon River just a short stroll from the centre of the old town. A true resort with lovely gardens, open-air restaurant, swimming pool, complete with pool bar and each night overlooking the river

Days 12 & 13. Hoi An

Two days to relax in this World Heritage Town that was once a thriving port for Chinese, Dutch, French, Japanese, Portuguese and Arab traders: Hoi An has a unique ambience with its tile roofed houses and narrow streets giving it a distinctly Chinese feel. No cars may enter 'Old Town' and on Saturdays it is also motorcycle free making it the ideal place on your holiday to stroll and soak up the atmosphere of a unique Vietnamese town. Hoi An is also one of the best places in Asia to have clothes made.

Eating is a real treat with some wonderful restaurants that offer both Western and Asian cuisine and of course the town takes on another perspective after dark. There is plenty to keep you busy, visit the local markets, do a cooking class or cycle through the tranquil and beautiful countryside on an eco-bike tour or spend some time at the nearby beach.

Day 14. Hoi An / Hue Rail Journey

Late morning your guide will call at the hotel to transfer you to Da Nang Railway Station where they will stay with you until you are safely seated on the Reunification Express Train. Departure on this 3 hour journey will be at 1.00pm and is the most scenic section of the Ho Chi Minh – Hanoi railway line, undoubtedly one of the great rail journeys of the world. The train travels at low speeds as it climbs steep gradients up the Hai Van Pass and descends mountains to white sandy beaches then it is on past rural countryside and fishing villages before you arrive in Hue at around 4.00pm.

Travelling by Vietnam Rail is very unique but also a “must do” - don’t expect too much comfort as the carriages are all one class and you will be sharing this remarkable journey mostly with the delightful locals.

On arrival in Hue take a taxi to your hotel just under 1km from the station. Breakfast is included each morning of your stay.

Day 15. Hue

Hue, a past capital of Vietnam was founded by the Nguyen dynasty in the 17th Century and at 8.30am you depart the hotel for a morning tour of the city. Another different experience as you travel by Cyclos (bicycle carriages for one person) over the Perfume River to the Imperial Citadel (entrance included) where along with our guide you will spend a fascinating time exploring an amazing World Heritage Site that took over 20,000 people to construct the 30_ thick outer walls. The site covers over 2 square miles enclosing the land of eight villages. At the end of your visit you have your own personal Cyclo driver to take you around Hue for the rest of the morning. Afternoon free and we recommend a cruise on the Perfume River at dusk. Hue is renowned for its good food and our “Where to eat and what to see guide” will direct you to a selection of interesting and inexpensive restaurants like the café owned by a world famous photographer where not only is the food great, you can also purchase amazing photographs of Vietnam.

Day 16. Hue / Hanoi

An early start, with an included transfer to Hue Airport to catch the 8.30am flight to Hanoi. On arrival at Hanoi you are met by your English-speaking guide and commence a sightseeing tour. This provides you with an overview of the Capital City known for its Lakes, Temples and French colonial architecture. You are driven to the French Quarter, visit Ho Chi Minh’s Mausoleum and visit the Temple of Literature before checking into our charming 3 star plus hotel right in the heart of the Old Quarter (location, location, location!). Your stay here is in the best hotel in this quaint district; daily buffet breakfast is included.

Day 17. Hanoi – Free Day

It’s time to take life easy and enjoy this lively city. Explore on foot (or Cyclo) the shaded boulevards of the French Quarter with their French style cafés. The narrow streets around your hotel full of the most amazing little shops, the lakes and parks as they all blend in to the special mix of alluring Hanoi. This is a city to explore at your leisure.

Day 18. Hanoi / Halong Bay

At 8.00am your driver will collect you for the 165 kilometres drive to Halong, where you embark on your Chinese sailing Junk cruising Halong Bay. With some 1600 islands and islets, many of which rise dramatically from the emerald sea, this maritime gem, a World Heritage site, is an area of outstanding natural beauty.

Enjoy a fresh seafood lunch (included) then cruise with ample time for a swim and a chance to explore some of the limestone caves. At sunset we drop anchor and enjoy a cocktail before being served dinner (included) in the junk’s restaurant, afterwards settle down for the night in the comfort of your own cabin. Of course all cabins have full facilities.

We are happy to help you plan your onward journey- just ask us.
